Silver Distichodus

Availability: Out Of Stock
Call for Price: 011 826 5887

Short Description
Subject to change depending on availability

Description
The Silver Distichodus (Distichodus affinis) is a sleek, torpedo-shaped freshwater species known for its speed and shimmering silver body. Native to the rivers and lakes of Central and West Africa, this fish adds dynamic movement to an aquariums. While peaceful when young, adult Silver Distichodus can become territorial.

Subject to change depending on availability

*Scientific Name:Distichodus affinis

*Common Name: Silver Distichodus

*Origin:Central and West Africa

*Diet: Omnivorous – pellets, and occasional protein

Product Gallery

