

Hemiodus Gracilis

Call for Price: 011 826 5887

Short Description

Subject to change depending on availability.

Description

Hemiodus gracilis is a streamlined, fast-swimming species native to the Amazon and Orinoco river basins. Known for its schooling nature and silvery body, it thrives in, well-oxygenated aquariums.

*Max Size: 15–20 cm

*Native Region: South America (Amazon & Orinoco basins)

*Diet: Omnivorous – accepts flakes & pellets.

Subject to change depending on availability.