L075 Para Plecostomus

Availability: Out Of Stock
Call for Price: 011 826 5887

Description

The Para Pleco (Peckoltia sabaji, L075) is a beige to orange tinted suckermouth catfish that is covered with large gray to black spots. The spots on the head are small, and those on the fins and behind the gills to the rear of the body are large. The dorsal and caudal fins are normally tinged with orange.

Product Gallery

